

What is diakonia?

The diakonia™ Program is a two-year process of spiritual formation and theological education for baptized members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America or anyone wishing in good faith to study these teachings. This process occurs in three basic ways:

- by thorough grounding in the classic seminary disciplines of practical, systematic, historical and Biblical theology;
- by identifying particular skills and aptitudes in ministry and encouraging their use in the local parish;
- by providing spiritual growth through worship, retreats, and a supportive community of fellow students, mentors, and instructors.

These are the tools diakonia uses to help equip God's people for service in parish and neighborhood ministries. The primary theme and focus of the diakonia experience is found in this word of Scripture: "Let the one who would be great among you be your servant (diakonos)."

What is diakonia's emphasis?

The purpose and goal of the diakonia program is to provide each participant the opportunity to discover their God-given gifts, strengthen their faith and their abilities, and give them purpose within their own congregations, synods, and the church-wide body of Christ. Through the diakonia educational experience, each student's understanding of theology and their relationship to God is allowed to blossom and bear fruit as a light of Christ in society.

How is diakonia structured?

diakonia is a two year course of study which consists of twelve courses - six courses each year. Each course is five weeks in length, meeting once a week for three hours each. Weekly assignments and readings reflect the twin purposes of relating subject matter to the student's context of life and ministry (family, parish, neighborhood, area of ministry), and giving a solid background to the topic. Students work at their own level, and assignments reflect the understanding that students are already busy in their families, jobs and parish. Typically, students average approximately 3-5 hours of study per week in addition to class time.

Fees

How much does diakonia cost?

1. Tuition: $360 per year (for the two year program). Pro-rated refunds are given for students who withdraw from the program.
2. Fees: A non-refundable Registration Fee of $25 is required at the time of registration. An additional fee of $24-40 at the conclusion of the program covers graduation expenses, including the presenting of a commemorative diakonia cross.
3. Books: Actual costs for books vary from course to course, but instructors try to provide materials for less than $25-30 per course.
4. Retreats: The number of retreats is determined by year, normally these is one. Retreat costs will vary by location.
5. Financial Aid: Financial aid is available, plus we strongly encourage congregations to help support their lay leaders. It is our goal to turn no one away because financial need.
